Appeal 2016 Programme Overall Log frame

Intervention	Measurable Indicators	Means of verification	Assumptions
Overall Goal: Conflict affected communities of Darfur have enhanced resilience to the recurrent crises.
Health &Nutrition sector	% change in morbidity and mortality rates among most common diseases	Nutrition survey reports Mortality survey reports Health Management Information Systems (HMIS)	Security situation remains stable to allow implementation of programme plans. Community beneficiaries willing to participate in programme activities
Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) sector	% change in morbidity and mortality rates among most common water diseases.	Nutrition survey reports Mortality survey reports HIS database	Communities willing to participate in programme activities. Access to programme areas remains possible
Emergency Preparedness & Response sector	% of displaced population in targeted areas supported with ES/NFIs by the end of 2016.	UN OCHA Weekly Monthly bulletins Quarterly reports NFI distribution reports	HAC approvals are secured timely to allow timely humanitarian emergency response. Communities are willing to participate in emergency response activities
Livelihood sector	% of households able to meet their food needs throughout the year in programme areas	Programme reports. FEWSNET reports. State Ministry of agriculture reports. WFP report. Project assessment reports. Quarterly reports.	Communities willing to support and participate in livelihood programme activities Security situation remains relatively calm to allow access to arable land Good climatic weather prevails during the year
Education	% of girls and boys enrolled and completing basic primary education	Review of reports and records School PTA records Enrolment records Distribution reports School staffing records Attendance registers	Communities willing to support and participate in education programme activities (PTAs, etc.) Security situation remains relatively calm to allow access
ODCB sector	% national staff in NCA and partner organizations able to; design,	ODCB records.	Partners willing to allow staff participate in capacity building processes.

	implement and manage programme interventions.	Partner HR PDR records.	Budget available for implementation of capacity building plans.