

Consolidated Results Framework

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target No of Persons	Location	Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
HUMANITARIAN	Provide multi sectorial humanitarian support to vulnerable communities	People in need received multisectorial support (hygiene , food , health and multipurpose cash assistance) to alleviate their hardship through a coordinated approach.	HHS will have access to food security through the provision of food vouchers .	85% of beneficiaries will report that the food voucher alleviate their economic burdens and preserve their well being	MECC	8000	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results random feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	Every two months
			HHS will have access to get hygiene items through voucher distributions	85% of beneficiaries will report that the hygiene items preserve the hygenic wellbeing in homes for all families	MECC	8000	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results random feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	Every two months
			Chronic and cancer patients will have access to get medication and cycle treatement	90% of beneficiaries report that the provision of medication on time alleviate their economic burden and preserve their health condition	MECC	400	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results random feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	Every two months
			400 HHS (refugees , IDPs and vulnerable host communities) will have access to receive multi purpose cash assistance	90 % of beneficiaries will report that the provision of cash helped them to cover many urgent needs for their living cost	MECC	2000	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , A;LZarka including scatered camp	signed lists of beneficiaries signed vouchers from financial service providers PDM results random feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	Every two months
	Increase access to WASH and adress water scarcity among IDPs, returnees, and host communities.	Enhanced community resilience and sustainable water resource management.	Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased access to WASH infrastructure and services.	% Of participants reporting increased access to safe water and sanitation # Of individuals gaining access to sufficient drinking water	LWF	66000	Duhok & Ninewa	Project evaluation report Monitoring visits Technical reports (WASH) Technical field report (WASH) Bill of Quantity (BoQs)	Semi-annual
			Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased knowledge about good hygiene and water conservation practices.	% Of participants reporting improved hygiene practice through applying personal hygiene methods % Of participants reporting use of water conservation techniques	LWF	3000	Duhok & Ninewa	Distribution lists PDM surveys KAP surveys (baseline and end-line) Participants dashboard Observation	Semi-annual
			Government entities have increased their capacity to maintain WASH infrastructure and address water scarcity and climate change.	# Of local government entities that received support to improve managing WASH services and address climate change	LWF	10050	Duhok & Ninewa	Photos Success stories	Semi-annual
		Increased knowledge on appropriate WASH regulations climate practices in schools as well as addressing the best consumption of water in Jordan	1000 students in private schools will have access to participate in a special WASH awareness session with distribution of brochures including best practices of water consumption in schools and at home	85% of targeted students will report about increasing knowledge of WASH best practices and share their gained knowledge with their peers.	MECC	1000	Amman governorate	name of schools number of students segregated by gender and age feedback from selected students	Monthly during the implementaion of the program

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target No of Persons	Location	Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
	Increase protection, improve psychosocial well-being and enhance social cohesion among those who are marginalized, especially women and girls.	Enhanced capacities and efforts for protection and social cohesion.	Women and girls have access to protection services and community members have enhanced capacity to address protection issues.	% Of participants reporting increased levels of safety and peace in project locations # Of individuals referred to and receiving protection assistance	LWF	4230	Duhok & Ninewa	Project evaluation report Case reports/client records KAP surveys (base-line and end-line) Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard 5Ws	Semi-annual & Monthly
			Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased social cohesion and promote collective efforts to address climate change.	# Of community-based initiatives implemented by youth on social cohesion and community priorities #No. of youth who were actively engaged in identifying needs and designing solutions during the project duration	LWF	360	Duhok & Ninewa	Attendance sheets & certificates Training curricula/materials Meeting minutes Monitoring visits Observation Photos Success stories	Semi-annual
			Government entities and local stakeholders have increased their capacity to promote social cohesion and prevent and respond to protection violations.	#No. Of government staff and local stakeholders with increased capacity to promote social cohesion and prevent and respond to protection violations.	LWF	70	Duhok & Ninewa		Semi-annual
		Raising awareness on child protection in private schools is developed and applied	300 teachers in private schools will have access to get special tailored training on child protection and other safeguarding policies .	90% of trainees wil report about the useful training and their readiness to apply child protection method upon dealing with students	MECC	300	Amman governorate	Attendance rescord pre and post evaluation feedback through FGDs	Monthly
		Improving the well-being of affected people including children, women and youth with members of host communities are enhanced	300 affected people in need of PSS support and accompaniment will have access to get the required services from specialized Orthodox house in Jordan	80% of beneficiaries will report about the positive changing and their ability to have better coping mechanism	MECC	300	Amman governorate	List of beneficiaries Feed back from individulas success stories	Monthly
	Increase income and enhance use of climate-adaptive technologies among IDPs, returnees, and host communities.	Improved economic stability and enhanced equitable access to resources and services for adoption of climate-resilient technologies.	Women and youth have developed the skills and capacity to improve their employability and facilitate their transition to decent jobs.	% Of participants reporting increased income # Of individuals reporting improved skills and capacity	LWF	290	Duhok & Ninewa	Project evaluation report Employment/business monitoring reports Crop production data (quantitative and qualitative) Distribution lists PDM surveys	Semi-annual & Monthly
			Farmers and agricultural workers have strengthened their ability to adopt climate-adaptive practices and increase productivity.	% Of participants reporting adoption of climate resilient practices/techniques # Of individuals with increased knowledge on climate resilient food production techniques # Of individuals receiving assets (equipment/tools) % Of individuals increasing the yield and quality of their products # Of government authorities who support farmers and agricultural	LWF	830	Duhok & Ninewa	KAP surveys (base-line and end-line) Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard Attendance sheets & certificates Training curricula/materials Meeting minutes Monitoring visits Handover reports Observation Photos Success stories	Semi-annual & Monthly

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target No of Persons	Location	Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
DEVELOPMENT	Enhance access to sustainable livelihoods and economic empowerment opportunities for marginalized communities, including women, youth, and refugees.	Improved economic stability and self-reliance through tailored vocational training, entrepreneurship development, business development support (BDS), and the provision of home-based business grants.	200 participants will have access to be enrolled in professional technical vocational training within specific training opportunities according to jobs requirement in Jordan	80% will report that the quality of training and gained skills will allow them to enter the job market	MECC	200	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
			200 participants will attend special course on business start up and how to develop a business plan.	80% will report that the business start up training increased their knowledge on how to do a business plan and capability to initiate their own business in the future	MECC	200	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
			200 graduates from the vocational training will be placed in internship training each according to his/her training field	80% of participants that the internship training was useful to apply their theoretical studies and increased their skills to get jobs easily in the market	MECC	200	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
			30 Grants will be available to those who will initiate their personal small business based on evaluation of their feasible business plan	90% of participants will report that initiation their own business either home business of out business will increase their income and sustain their financial self-reliance	MECC	30	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	result of feasible studies monthly follow up on the succes of the project Report on sustainability based on the revenue of each project	Monthly
PEACE BUILDING	Increase support from government authorities, local leaders, and other duty bearers in Iraq to enable the realization of rights for all.	Increased support from government authorities, local leaders, and other duty bearers in Iraq to enable the realization of rights for all.	ACT members and local partners have increased their capacity to conduct effective advocacy efforts.	# Of duty bearers considering the issues raised by rights holders in their decision-making # Of individuals with increased advocacy skills/awareness	LWF	379	Duhok, Ninewa & Erbil	Project evaluation report Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard Attendance sheets & certificates Training curricula/materials Meeting minutes Monitoring visits Observation Photos Customer stories	Semi-annual
	Improve quality and accountability of the program and operations.	Improved quality and accountability of the program and operation.	ACT members have improved accountability mechanisms, including CRMs.	# Of ACT members with improved quality and accountability in program implementation # Of ACT members effectively addressing complaints in a timely/efficient manne	LWF	N/A	Duhok & Erbil	Project evaluation report Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard Attendance sheets & certificates Training curricula/materials	Semi-annual
			ACT members effectively coordinate among ACT and non-ACT actors.	# Of ACT and non-ACT actors participating in coordination efforts	LWF	N/A	Duhok & Erbil	Meeting minutes Monitoring visits Observation	Semi-annual
			Staff and all stakeholders are adhere with MECC safeguarding policies	# of staff and program stakeholders attended training on MECC policies and procedures.	MECC	N/A	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	name of staff and stakeholders . Attended records	Monthly

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target No of Persons	Location	Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
A			Beneficiaries and staff are well aware about CRMs mechanism with all templates adopted by MECC to raise concerned and to ensure to respond to all comments on time	# of reports and complaints received by beneficiaries and addressed .	MECC	N/A	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	name of staff and stakeholders. Attended records	Monthly
	Improve the coordination and collaboration among humanitarian church-related organizations both local and international	Coordination and collaboration among different church related humanitarian actors developed and ensure sharing experience and lesson learned	# of invited organization are invited by MECC once every year .	# and names of attended organization report on recommendations and decision taken . Report on Nexus modality adopted by the beneficiaries	MECC	70	Amman governorate	name of attended organizations	Yearly