

Consolidated Results Framework

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target	Data Source/ Collection Method		Frequency of reporting
HUMANITARIAN	Provide multi sectorial humanitarian support to people affected by the Syrian and Gaza crises in places hosting refugees and IDPs including vulnerable host communities	People in need received multisectorial support (hygiene, food, health and multipurpose cash assistance) to alleviate their hardship through a coordinated approach.	500 HHS will have access to food security through the provision of food vouchers .	85% of beneficiaries will report that the food voucher alleviate their economic burdens and preserve their well being	MECC	2500	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , Al Zarka including scattered camp	Signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results Sample feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	every two months
			75 selected beneficiaries from different backgrounds (IDPs, refugees and host communities) will attend social gathering and share their stories on social cohesion, shared future and peace building.
			500 HHS will have access to get hygiene items through voucher distributions	85% of beneficiaries will report that the hygiene items preserve the hygienic wellbeing in homes for all families	MECC	2500	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , Al Zarka including scattered camp	Signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results Sample feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	every two months
	75 selected beneficiaries from different backgrounds (IDPs, refugees and host communities) will attend social gathering and share their stories on social cohesion, shared future and Peace Building.
	400 HHS (IDPs from Gaza and vulnerable host communities) will have access to receive multi purpose cash assistance.	90% of beneficiaries report that the provision of cash helped them cover urgent needs	MECC	200	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , Al Zarka including scattered camp	Signed lists of beneficiaries PDM results Sample feedback from the receipts to verify the impact of activity	every two months
	75 selected beneficiaries from different background (IDPs, refugees and host communities) will attend social gathering and share their stories on social cohesion, shared future and peace building.
	Increase access to WASH and adress water scarcity among IDPs, returnees, and host communities.	Enhanced community resilience and sustainable water resource management.	Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased access to WASH infrastructure and services.	% Of participants reporting increased access to safe water and sanitation % of individuals or HHS that use an improved drinking water source	LWF	0.85	Duhok & Ninewa	Project evaluation report Monitoring visits Technical reports (WASH) Technical field report (WASH) Bill of Quantity (BoQs) Distribution lists PDM surveys KAP surveys (baseline and end-line) Participants dashboard Observation Photos	Semi-annual
			Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased knowledge about good hygiene and water conservation practices.	% of individuals or HHS with adequate hygiene practices % Of participants reporting use of water conservation techniques						LWF	0.75
			Government entities have increased their capacity to maintain WASH infrastructure and address water scarcity and climate change.	# Of local government entities that received support to improve managing WASH services and address climate change	LWF	10050	Duhok & Ninewa
			Households in Kani Arab village have better access to clean water after maintaining the main water tank of the village	The main water tank, the water network and locks of the Kani Arab village are maintained				CAP	48 families 70%	Kani Arab village	data collection from a sample of the households survey/company contract/photos
			Crop production improves as farmers are able to irrigate their land regularly through the new canal.	A water irrigation network (canal) is prepared for several farmers to irrigate their crops in the Garshin Complex	CAP	25 70%	Garshin Complex
			Increase protection, improve psychosocial well-being and enhance social cohesion among those who are marginalized, especially women and girls.	Enhanced capacities and efforts for protection and social cohesion.				Women and girls have access to protection services and community members have enhanced capacity to address protection issues.	% Of participants reporting increased levels of safety and peace in project locations % Of individuals referred to and receiving protection assistance	LWF	1
	Local communities in Duhok and Ninewa have increased social cohesion and promote collective efforts to address climate change.	# Of community-based initiatives implemented by youth on social cohesion and community priorities % of youth who were actively engaged in identifying needs and designing solutions during the project duration			LWF	8 75%	Duhok & Ninewa
	Government entities and local stakeholders have increased their capacity to promote social cohesion and prevent and respond to protection violations.	% No. Of government staff and local stakeholders with increased capacity to promote social cohesion and prevent and respond to protection violations.						LWF	85%	Duhok & Ninewa
	Raising awareness on child protection in private schools is developed and applied	300 teachers in private schools will have access to get special tailored training on child protection and other safeguarding policies 300 trained teachers will attend special sessions on the role of safeguarding in peace building.			MECC	300	Amman governorate				Attendance rescord pre and post evaluation feedback through FGDs
	Increase income and enhance use of climate-adaptive technologies among IDPs, returnees, and host communities.	Improved economic stability and enhanced equitable access to resources and services for adoption of climate resilient technologies.						Women and youth have developed the skills and capacity to improve their employability and facilitate their transition to decent jobs.	% Of participants reporting increased income % Of individuals reporting improved skills and capacity	LWF
					Farmers and agricultural workers have strengthened their ability to adopt climate-adaptive practices and increase productivity.	% Of participants reporting adoption of climate resilient practices/techniques % Of individuals with increased knowledge on climate resilient food production techniques # Of individuals receiving assets (equipment/tools) % Of individuals increasing the yield and quality of their products # Of government authorities who support farmers and agricultural workers in promoting their businesses	LWF	75% 830	Duhok & Ninewa
			families started adopting bee keeping as a sustainable livelihood activity.	Several families are supported through providing them with bee boxes	CAP	13 families 70%				Avzarook Shino, and Avzarook Mery villages	Receipt note/monitoring report/data collected from the families through survey/photos
families started adopting sheep keeping as a sustainable livelihood activity.			a total of 124 sheep distributed to several individuals	CAP			40 families	Avzarook Shino, Avzarook Mery, Kani Arab, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	Receipt note/monitoring report/data collected from the families through survey/photos
Farmers experience improved animal health and reduced livestock and bee losses due to regular veterinary support.			Regular health check-ups and basic treatment for livestock and bees is provided through mobile veterinary clinic		CAP	N/A				Avzarook Shino, Avzarook Mery, Kani Arab, Be Bezne, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	monitoring reports/photos

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target	Location	Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
DEVELOPMENT	Enhance access to sustainable livelihoods and economic empowerment opportunities for marginalized communities, including women, youth, and refugees.	Improved safety and mobility of the supported villages at night due to enhanced road lighting	Several villages are supported through installation of solar lighting in their roads	# of villages provided with solar lighting % of individuals who reported safer and easier mobility at the night	CAP	680 70%	Kani Arab, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex, Be Bezne villages	monitoring reports/photos	Monthly
		The school gains reliable and continuous access to electricity, improving the learning environment	Garshin village school is supported with a solar system producing 30 amps	% The school experiences increased hours of reliable electricity, improving the learning environment and daily operations.	CAP	800	Garshin Complex	data collection through a survey with school staff and students/company contract/photos	Semi annual tailored vocational training, entrepreneurship development, business development support (BDS), and the provision of home-based business grants.	professional technical vocational training within specific training opportunities according to jobs requirement in Jordan. 150 beneficiaries from different backgrounds will attend social gathering and share their stories on social cohesion, shared future and peace building. 150 participants will attend special course on business start up and how to develop a business plan.	80% will report that the quality of training and gained skills will allow them to enter the job market	MECC	150	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
			150 graduates from the vocational training will be placed in internship training each according to his/her training field	80% will report that the business start up training increased their knowledge on how to do a business plan and capability to initiate their own business in the future	MECC	150	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
		Farmers adopt improved agricultural and irrigation techniques.	Farmers from one village received dripping irrigation systems	# of farmers who received irrigation systems	CAP	6	Avzarook Shino Village	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Monthly
		Farmers reduce crop losses caused by pests and soil nutrient deficiencies.	Farmers are provided with fertilizers and pesticides	% of farmers who reported reduced crop losses after receiving the fertilizers and pesticides # of farmers who received fertilizers and pesticides	CAP	18	Avzarook Mery village	receipt note	Monthly
		Farmers showed an increase in knowledge in using newly developed agricultural practices	Farmers from all six villages are trained on developed agricultural practices	% of farmers who are trained % of farmers who showed an increase in their knowledge	CAP	50	Avzarook Shino, Avzarook Mery, Kani Arab, Be Bezne, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	Data collected from farmers through pre-post survey/attendance sheets	Monthly
		Increased green area through planting trees in the villages	1000 trees are planted in different villages, each village has 200 trees	# of trees planted in each village	CAP	N/A	Avzarook Shino, Kani Arab, Be Bezne, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	Supplier contract/photos/monitoring visits	Monthly by the end of the project, at least 60% of the trained individuals show improvement in their knowledge and skills in food processing	a total of 200 individuals from youth and elders attended food processing training for producing dairy, pickles, and food products	% of improvement in the knowledge and skills of the individuals trained # of individuals attended the food processing training	CAP	200	Avzarook Shino, Avzarook Mery, Kani Arab, Be Bezne, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	pre-post survey/attendance sheets/photos/training evaluation report	Annually
		the participants showed improvement in their marketing knowledge after attending the training	The individuals trained on food processing received marketing training to learn how to market products produced through food processing	% of the participants who showed improvement in their knowledge after attending the training	CAP	200	Avzarook Shino, Avzarook Mery, Kani Arab, Be Bezne, Ismail Ava, Garshin Complex,	Attendance sheet Monthly trainer evaluation on the performance of participants test scores Feed back from trainees	Annually
	To strengthen youth engagement and promote social cohesion, participation, and mutual understanding in Duhok and Ninewa.	Youth from diverse communities actively participate in initiatives that foster mutual understanding, cooperation, and dialogue	Youth platforms and engagement promoted (Local youth forum)	# of youth forums conducted % of youth participating in platforms (disaggregated by gender and community)	LWF	4 75%	Duhok & Ninewa	Attendance sheets visibility photos/videos, meeting minutes, agenda	Quarterly
			Mutual understanding improved and cooperation between communities enhanced (Cultural events, joint visits, inter-community sports)	# of inter-community dialogue and trust-building activities conducted % of participants reporting increased understanding, respect, and improved relationships with other communities	LWF	3 75%	Duhok & Ninewa	Event reports & photos/videos Sports tournament reports Pre/post survey results	Quarterly
			Youth social cohesion capacity strengthened (DoJ trainings)	% of participants reporting improved understanding of social cohesion principles	LWF	85%	Duhok & Ninewa	Training attendance sheets Pre/post training tests	Quarterly
			Advocacy and stakeholder engagement conducted	# of advocacy dialogues with national stakeholders % of stakeholders reporting increased awareness of youth/community issues	LWF	2 70%	Duhok	Training reports, visibility photos/videos Dialogue meeting minutes/reports Attendance lists Post-dialogue evaluation forms, visibility photos/videos	Quarterly
		Increased support from government authorities, local leaders, and other duty bearers in Iraq to enable the realization of rights for all.	ACT members and local partners have increased their capacity to conduct effective advocacy efforts.	# Of duty bearers considering the issues raised by rights holders in their decision-making # Of individuals with increased advocacy skills/awareness	LWF	379	Duhok, Ninewa & Erbil	Project evaluation report Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard Attendance sheets & certificates Training curricula/materials Meeting minutes Monitoring visits	Semi-annual
			Climate-adaptive is strengthened through integrated humanitarian, development, and peace interventions that improve community preparedness, resource management, and climate-smart practices.	% of community members (Youth) reporting improved cooperation and reduced tensions through joint climate-resilience and DRR activities. # of individuals who adopted climate-adaptation practices as a result of awareness and capacity-building interventions.	LWF	75% 20000	Duhok & Ninewa	Pre- and post-activity surveys Attendance sheets Community feedback reports Meeting minutes from joint committees. Follow-up household visits Training attendance sheets & evaluation reports Photos/documentation of adaptation practices	Semi-annual
			100 participants will attend a high official national seminar in partnership with ACT on the experience of the kingdom of Jordan on enhancing peace and reconciliation through its foreign policy and the role of humanitarian actors in meeting the government strategy whose outcomes being a guiding policy upon applying Nexus in Jordan.	80% of participants will report positively about organizing such event at a national level to increase knowledge among the public on the concept of peace building	MECC	100	Amman governorate	Attendance record. Pre and post evaluation Feedback through FDGs	Monthly
			50 participants will report about the role of christian media in peace building for all church communication entities provided with training to communication people journalists on peace building approach in their communication services.	80% of participants will report about the role of coordinated national media in enhancing the peace building by adopting a peaceful discourse and appropriate peace terminologies that contribute to educate the public on peace	MECC	50	amman governorate	attendance registration and post event evaluation	once
	Improve quality and accountability of the program and operations.	Improved quality and accountability of the program and operation.	ACT members have improved accountability mechanisms, including CRMs.	# Of ACT members with improved quality and accountability in program implementation # Of ACT members effectively addressing complaints in a timely/efficient manne	LWF	80%	Duhok & Erbil	Project evaluation report Pre-tests and post tests Participants dashboard Attendance sheets & certificates	Semi-annual
			ACT members effectively coordinate among ACT and non-ACT actors.	# Of ACT and non-ACT actors participating in coordination efforts	LWF	80%	Duhok & Erbil		Semi-annual

	Collective Outcome	Crisis-affected populations in Jordan and Iraq – including refugees, IDPs, returnees, and vulnerable host communities – experience improved resilience, social cohesion, and equitable access to basic services, livelihoods, and protection, through integrated, locally led and accountable interventions.
HDP Component	Objectives	Outcome	Outputs	Key Indicator	Organisation	Target		Data Source/ Collection Method	Frequency of reporting
						No of Persons	Location
			Staff, BENEFICIARIES and all stakeholders adhere with MECC safeguarding policies . Beneficiaries and staff are well aware about CRMs mechanism with all templates adopted by MECC to raise concerned and to ensure to respond to all comments on time	# of staff and program stakeholders attended training on MECC policies and procedures . # of reports and complaints received by beneficiaries and addressed .	MECC	80%	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	name of staff and stakeholders . Attended records	Monthly
					MECC	7000	Governorates of Amman, Madaba, Fuheis , AL Zarka including scatered camp	name of staff and stakeholders. Attended records	Monthly
	Improve the Coordination and collaboration among humanitarian (church related organization local and international	6.1.Coordination and collaboration among different church related humanitarian actors developed and ensure sharing experience and lesson learned	# of organization who are invited by MECC once every year .	# and names of attended organization report on recommendations and decision taken . Report on Nexus modality adopted by the beneficiaries	MECC	70	Amman governorate	name of attending organizations	Yearly